

Random Acts of Cupcakes Coming to Rockaway on April 24

Rockaway, NJ – April 12, 2010 – The United Methodist Church of the Rockaways invites you to participate in Random Acts of Cupcakes, a one-day event to show appreciation and support for someone special in your life by delivering a free decorated cupcake.

“Sharing a cupcake is a simple way to show that you care about a neighbor, teacher, friend, babysitter, co-worker or even the local fire department,” said Rev. C. Jean McMullan, pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Rockaways. “Our goal is to make it easy to thank people who make a difference in our lives and support people who may be struggling in some way.”

Residents of Rockaway and surrounding communities are eligible to participate by completing an order form available at www.umcrockaway.org or at the United Methodist Church of the Rockaways, One Hoagland Avenue across from Park Lake. Orders must be placed by Wednesday, April 20 and include the name of the person placing the order and making the delivery, the first name of the recipient, and the number of cupcakes requested: individual cupcake, a family pack of 6 cupcakes, or an office pack of 12 cupcakes. Cupcakes and gift cards you can personalize will be available for pick-up at the church on Easter Sunday, April 24, after all worship services.

All are welcome at a Sunrise Service on Easter Sunday, April 24, at 6:30 a.m. at Park Lake, as well as Easter services at 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. and Sunday School at 9:15 a.m. at the United Methodist Church of the Rockaways.

“Through Random Acts of Cupcakes, we hope to share in a small but real way the wonderful gift of love celebrated on Easter,” explained Rev. McMullan. “This idea started when children of our church and their friends decorated cupcakes and brought them to residents of a local nursing home. The experience reminded us that joy is contagious.”

The United Methodist Church of the Rockaways is a family friendly congregation committed to growing together in faith and reaching out with God’s love. For more information, visit www.umcrockaway.org or call 973-627-2989.
